

NAVIGATE THE UNCERTAINTY AND COMPLEXITY OF CHANGE.

Map out your strategy for long-term viability.

Increasing competition, paired with shifting demographics and consumer behaviors, has contributed to turbulence within the higher education industry. Many small and midsize colleges and universities are establishing formal affiliations. These collaborations provide economies of scale, greater depth of operational resources, and sustainable revenue growth.

AGB advisors with expertise in mergers and affiliations can help you:

- Develop buy-side and sell-side strategies
- Create plans and processes to become “affiliation ready”
- Determine your institution’s prosperity gap (quality of earnings analysis)
- Align the appropriate merger vs. private system affiliation strategy
- Identify candidates for merger and/or private system affiliation
