

NEW FUTURE. NEW STRATEGY.

AGB helps institutions and foundations manage risks and crises.

The immediate impacts of COVID-19 shake institutions and foundations at the heart of their business models. Many face uncertain prospects for the future. Are their business models still viable? How radical must changes be to secure survival and long-term growth?

Risk Management & Crisis Recovery

AGB provides counsel and thought partnership to higher education boards and leadership that must:

- Respond strategically to COVID-19 and related financial impacts
- Make tough decisions regarding their institution's long-term prospects
- Identify steps for ensuring near-term response and survival
- Institutionalize sound risk management and crisis recovery practices

Our advisors help you consider the risks you face, make sound strategic choices, exercise leadership, and communicate effectively—before, when, and after crises strike.

Manage risks. Respond to crises.

Learn how AGB Consulting can help your board weather immediate crises and lead your institution or foundation toward a more certain future.
