

One AGB

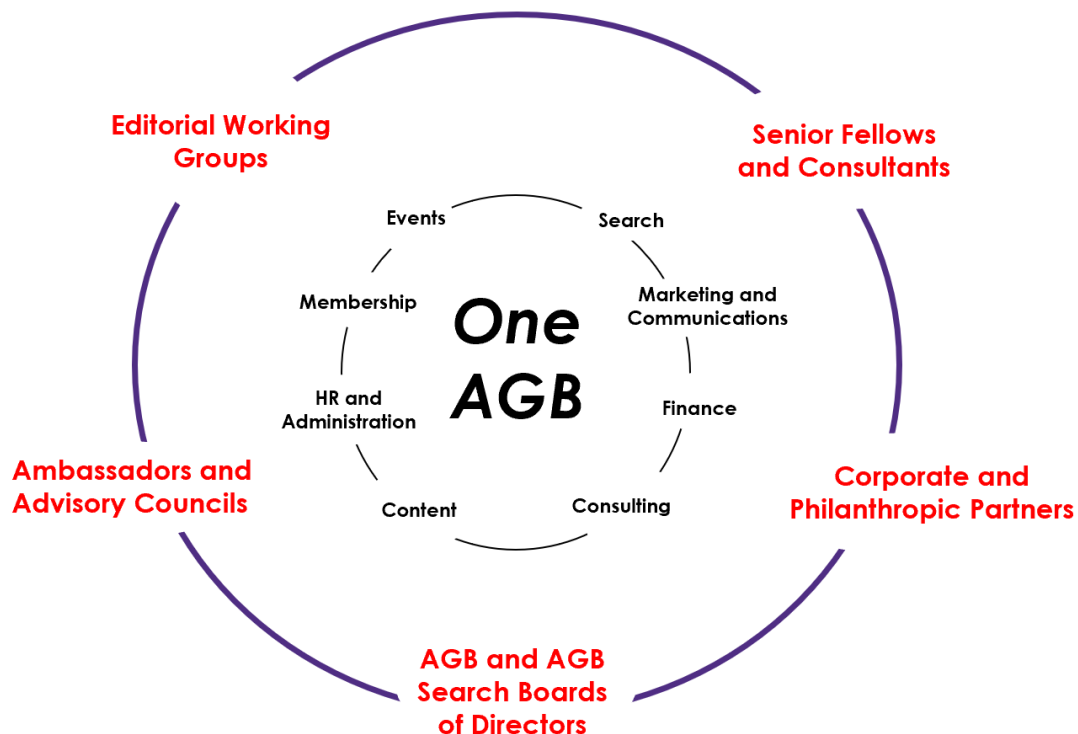

One AGB is an organization-wide philosophy characterized by a culture of consistent collaboration, innovation, and inclusivity. As such, teams across AGB are a source of strength, perform without regard to silos, and leverage the association's full suite of resources to strengthen higher education board governance focused on advancing student success and enhancing institutional vitality.

One AGB weaves together the combined strengths of the boards of directors of AGB and AGB Search, advisory councils and ambassadors, corporate and philanthropic partners, editorial working groups, senior fellows and consultants, staff, and all stakeholders to maximize the association's offerings through thought leadership, advisory services, and convening capacity.

The constituents of One AGB infuse their efforts with the goals outlined in AGB's vision, mission, and values. Both within and outside the association, One AGB is guided by an ongoing commitment to justice, diversity, equity, and inclusion.

We are one association, united in serving higher education board members and leadership teams, policymakers, and society.

We are stronger when we work together.

AGB's Vision

College, university, and foundation board members are indispensable, strategic partners with institutions to fulfill their unique commitments to society, advance student success and well-being, and enhance institutional vitality.

AGB's Mission

AGB empowers college, university, and foundation boards and board members to govern with knowledge and confidence, providing guidance and thought leadership through expert services and resources.

AGB's Values

- Dedication to the development of the institution of citizen trusteeship in higher education
- Dedication to the development of consequential, strategic governance through promotion of genuine thought partnership between board members and the chief executives of their institutions or foundations
- Commitment to the principles of justice, diversity, equity, and inclusion
- Responsive and high-quality service for our members
- Respect for members and colleagues in all interactions and transactions
- Collaboration within AGB and with other organizations
- Adherence to the highest ethical, legal, and moral standards in all endeavors